Commentary – Why do we seek God's face (his presence)?

God lays out his formula to heal our nation in 2 Chronicles 7:14 "if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." God wants us to seek his face (his presence) so that we can have a close, personal, intimate loving relationship with him. God knows everything about us, and He want us to know and understand Him so that we will love, trust, and obey Him. In Ephesians 5:25-32 God contrasts His love (as a groom) for the church (as a bride) to a husband's love for himself and his wife. Seeking God's face should look and feel like a dating, wooing, relationship of a couple falling in love for the first time where they can't get enough of each other. It's through this close loving relationship that God hears us, vindicates us, and pour out his blessing on us. Psalms 24:5-6 Says, "They will see blessing from the Lord and vindication from God their Savior. Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face, God of Jacob."
